Instructions to Complete the Undergraduate General Application Form

Welcome to Athabasca University. Anyone 16 years of age or older is eligible for admission to AU, regardless of previous educational experience, with or without a high school diploma.

All first-time students are required to complete and submit an Undergraduate General Application Form accompanied by a $123 admission fee. This fee is non-refundable and payable only once regardless of when you completed your last course. Students registering in an Athabasca University course(s) are also required to complete the Undergraduate Course Registration Form. Complete admission and academic regulations are available in the online Calendar: athabascau.ca/calendar/undergraduate Optional Information. Questions 1 and 2 in Section A of this form are voluntary and used for improving student services at Athabasca University.

Athabasca University is committed to providing reasonable academic accommodations to students with permanent or temporary disabilities. For information regarding academic accommodations and/or how to apply for academic accommodations please see athabascau.ca/support-services/accessibility-services

Are you a new student taking courses for credit? If you are a new student and registering as a non-program student, a visiting student (enrolled at another institution and taking Athabasca University courses for credit), or a transfer student (taking courses for transfer credit to another institution), you are “unclassified.” Unclassified students complete only Section A and B, and sign below Section E of the form.

Are you enrolling in a program? Students who are enrolling in an Athabasca University program are required to complete Section A, C, D, and E (if it is applicable). Select one program only (see page 2). If you want Athabasca University to provide an evaluation of your previous post-secondary education, you must pay an evaluation fee in addition to the undergraduate admission fee (refer to Section D and E). Those students must also arrange for official transcripts to be sent directly to Athabasca University’s Office of the Registrar, from each institution formerly attended.

Previously admitted students and students changing programs. If you are an Athabasca University student who has not been active (registered in an Athabasca University course) within the last 12 months of your last course contract date or date of withdrawal, or if you are requesting a change of admission classification (e.g., from unclassified to program), you must complete Section A, C, D, and E (if applicable) of the Undergraduate General Application Form.

Payment of the general application fee is required only once. If you are requesting an evaluation of your post-secondary education and you have not previously paid an evaluation fee, you must submit the evaluation fee.

Evaluation of Previous Post-Secondary Studies. Students who have attended another post-secondary institution in Canada or the US have the option of having their previous course work evaluated for potential transfer credit toward the Athabasca University program selected. Students presenting international credentials, refer to Foreign Transcript Evaluations in the Academic Calendar: www.athabascau.ca/calendar/under-graduate/admission-registration-evaluation/evaluations-and-transfer-credit.html Students who want an evaluation of their previous post-secondary education conducted are required to submit a $121 non-refundable evaluation fee and official transcripts.
